Who Do You Know? Recognizing Excellence in Health Care

The following awards will be presented at the Health Care Council Members' Breakfast and Awards Ceremony on Wednesday, June 16, 2010.

Chamber members are invited to nominate their organization, employees or fellow business associates for these awards. Health Care Council Board members are not eligible to receive these awards (see reverse).

Nomination Deadline: Friday, April 16, 2010

Nomination forms are also available online at www.waterburychamber.com.

Nominations are invited in the following categories:

Leadership Award

This award is presented to an individual from the health profession who embodies the qualities required to improve healthcare in our community. Through raising awareness, initiating change, enhancing quality of care, or creating new services, the recipient has demonstrated the vision and foresight needed to create a healthier future for us all.

(Possible recipients of this award would be an owner, executive, director, doctor, etc.)

Unsung Hero Award

This award is presented to a health care practitioner who has distinguished him or herself by providing exceptional care, compassion and commitment in their daily work. They have dedicated themselves to working behind the scenes in a hands-on capacity, making a difference in the lives of those they serve.

(Possible recipients of this award would be a doctor, nurse, therapist, technologist, etc.)

Stephen Sasala Health Advocate Award

This award is presented to an individual or group who works outside of the health industry yet still demonstrates exceptional commitment to healthcare related issues. By using their own unique capabilities and competencies they have demonstrated an ability to improve health and influence health related issues in a positive way.

(Possible recipients of this award would be policy makers, business people, directors, etc.)

Award for Organizational Excellence

This award is presented to an organization that demonstrates the best qualities of a health provider. Through exceptional commitment to safety, quality, positive outcomes, and compassionate care it exemplifies the ideals that embody excellence in everything it does.

(Possible recipients of this award would be a for-profit or non-profit organization, an ambulance company, doctors group, department within a larger organization (such as an emergency department), business, etc.)

The mission of the Health Care Council is to provide health care resources and information to employers, employees, individuals, and health care professionals, to provide networking opportunities for members and prospective members, and to educate professionals within the health care industry.
